Compri Sponsors Colorado Technology Association For 2nd Straight Year Women in Technology Leaders Gather for Annual Conference

Denver, CO – Compri Consulting Inc., IT staffing specialist, announces today the company is signing on for a second year to co-sponsor the Colorado Technology Association's (CTA) Women in Technology Conference.

Compri Consulting co-sponsors CTA's Women in Technology throughout the year, including the annual Women in Technology Conference. This peer-to-peer forum started in the fall of 2007 as a yearly networking get together, and has quickly grown to series of programs with incredible speakers and mentoring. The theme of this year's conference focuses on "finding your personal power and developing your brand" with presentations from some of the most influential women in Colorado:

Lauren Choate: Leadership Consultant, Resnik Partners

Jean Dubofsky: Former Colorado Supreme Court Justice

Kristin Russell: Secretary of Technology, CIO State of Colorado

Claire Rutkowski: Global IT Business Services Director, MWH Global

Rebecca Saltman: National Community Relations Manager, Dex One

Tom Melaragno, Compri founder, President and CEO underscored the value of conference saying, "We're proud to be associated with an organization like Women In Technology that fosters a wonderful entrepreneurial spirit in our Colorado business ecosystem."

ABOUT COLORADO TECHNOLOGY ASSOCIATION

The Colorado Technology Association represents Colorado's technology industry. The technology industry is one of the fastest growing in Colorado, ranked third in the nation in high-tech workers with more than 100,000 highly paid tech professionals. We also work nationally to ensure Colorado's technology voice is heard, through TECNA, a coalition of technology associations across the United States and Canada, as well as with TechAmerica, the national lobbying organization for federal issues. Since 1994, Colorado Technology Association has been involved in legislative issues and public policy to represent the technology industry in Colorado, and provides more than 50 programs, events and connections to support this industry.
